Monday of week 11 in Ordinary Time

Midday Prayer (Sext)

Introduction (without Invitatory)

If this is the first Hour that you are reciting today, use the version with the Invitatory Psalm instead.

O God, come to our aid.

O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son

and to the Holy Spirit,

as it was in the beginning,

is now, and ever shall be,

world without end.

Amen. Alleluia.

Hymn

Lord God and Maker of all things,

Creation is upheld by you.

While all must change and know decay,

You are unchanging, always new.

You are man's solace and his shield,

His Rock secure on which to build.

You are the spirit's tranquil home,
In you alone is hope fulfilled.

To God the Father and the Son
And Holy Spirit render praise:
Blest Trinity, from age to age
The strength of all our living days.

Stanbrook Abbey Hymnal

Psalm 118 (119): 89-96 Meditating the word of the Lord in the Law

“This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you” (Jn 13:34).

I seek your precepts, Lord; for with them you give me life.

Your wórd, O Lórd, for éver *
stands firm in the héavens:
your trúth lasts from áge to áge, *
like the éarth you créated.

By your décrée it endúres to this dáy; *
for áll things sérve you.
Had your láw not béen my delíght *
I would have díed in my afflíction.

I will néver forgét your précepts *
for with thém you give me lífe.
Sáve me, for Í am yóurs *
since I séek your précepts.

Though the wícked lie in wáit to destróy me *
yet I pónder on your wíll.
I have séen that all perféction has an énd *
but your commánd is bóundless.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
world without end.
Amen.

I seek your precepts, Lord; for with them you give me life.

Psalm 70 (71):1-13
The Lord has been my hope since my youth

“Have hope and rejoice, show patience in times of trial” (Rom 12:12).

O Lord, you have been my hope since my youth.

In yóu, O Lórd, I take refúge; *
let me néver be pút to sháme.

In your jústice réscue me, frée me: *
pay héed to mé and sáve me.

Be a róck where Í can take réfuge, †
a míghty stróngthold to sáve me; *
for yóu are my róck, my stróngthold.
Frée me from the hánd of the wícked, *
from the gríp of the unjúst, of the oppréssor.

It is yóu, O Lórd, who are my hópe, *
my trúst, O Lórd, since my yóuth.
On yóu I have léaned from my bírth, †
from my móther's womb yóu have been my hélp. *
My hópe has álways been in yóu.

My fáte has filled mány with áwe *
but yóu are my stróng réfuge.
My líps are filled with your práise, *
with your glóry ál the day lóng.
Do not rejéct me nów that I am óld; *
when my stréngth fails dó not forsáke me.

For my énemies are spéaking abóut me; *
those who wáitch me take cóunsel togéther.
They say, 'Gód has forsáken him; fóllow him, *
séize him; there is nó one to sáve him.'
O Gód, do not stáy far óff: *
my Gód, make háste to hélp me!

Let thém be put to sháme and destróyed, *
all thóse who seek my lífe.
Let them be cóvered with sháme and confúsió, *
all thóse who seek to hárm me.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
world without end.
Amen.

O Lord, you have been my hope since my youth.

Psalm 70 (71):14-24

When I grow old do not forsake me, O God.

But as for mé, I will álwáys hópe *
and práise you móre and móre.
My líps will téll of your jústice †
and dáy by dáy of your hélp; *
though Í can néver tell it áll.

I will decláre the Lórd's mighty déeds *
procláiming your jústice, yours alóne.
O Gód, you have táught me from my yóuth *
and I procláim your wónders stíll.

Nów that I am óld and grey-héaded, *
dó not forsáke me, Gód.
Let me téll of your pówer to all áges, *
praise your stréngth and jústice to the skíes,
tell of yóu who have wórked such wónders. *
O Gód, whó is líke you?

You have búrdened me with bítter tróubles *
but you will gíve me báck my lífe.
You will ráise me from the dépths of the éarth; *
you will exált me and consóle me agáin.

So I will gíve you thánks on the lýre *
for your fáithful lóve, my Gód.
To yóu will I síng with the hárp, *
to yóu, the Hóly One of Ísrael.
When I síng to you my líps shall rejóice *
and my sóul, which yóu have redéemed.

And áll the day lóng my tóngue *
shall téll the tále of your jústice:
for théy are put to sháme and disgráced, *
all thóse who séek to hárm me.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
world without end.

Amen.

When I grow old do not forsake me, O God.

Scripture Reading

Romans 6:22

Now you have been set free from sin, you have been made slaves of God, and you get a reward leading to your sanctification and ending in eternal life.

℣. Lord, we know that you will restore our life again.
℟. Then your people will rejoice in you.

Let us pray.

God, Lord and master of the vineyard and harvest, you allot us our tasks and determine the just rewards of our labours.

Help us to bear the burden of the day
and accept your will in all things without complaint.
Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Let us praise the Lord.
– Thanks be to God.

Hymn

Eternal Father, loving God,

Who made us from the dust of earth,

Transform us by the Spirit's grace,

Give value to our little worth.

Prepare us for that day of days

When Christ from heaven will come with might

To call us out of dust again,
Our bodies glorified in light.

O Godhead, here untouched, unseen,
All things created bear your trace;
The seed of glory sown in man
Will flower when we see your face.

At the daytime hours (Terce, Sext, None) when you don't choose to use the psalms of the day, use the complementary psalms instead.

COMPLEMENTARY PSALMS

Psalm 125 (126) Gladness and hope in the Lord

“Just as you are sharing in our sufferings, so also will you share our consolations” (2 Cor 1:7).

What marvels the Lord worked for us: indeed we are glad.

When the Lórd delivered Síon from bóndage, *
it séemed like a dréam.

Thén was our móuth filled with láughter, *
on our líps there were sóngs.

The héathens themsélves said: ‘What márvels *
the Lórd worked for thém!’
What márvels the Lórd worked for ús! *
Indéed we were glád.

Delíver us, O Lórd, from our bóndage *
as stréams in dry lánd.

Thóse who are sówing in téars *
will síng when they réap.

They go óut, they go óut, full of téars, *
carrying séed for the sówing:
they come báck, they come báck, full of sóng, *
cárrying their shéaves.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
world without end.

Amen.

What marvels the Lord worked for us: indeed we are glad.

Psalm 126 (127)

Without the Lord, we labour in vain

“You are God’s building” (1 Cor 3:9).

The Lord will build the house for us; he will watch over our city.

If the Lórd does not búild the hóuse, *
in váin do its búilders lábour;
if the Lórd does not wáitch over the cíty, *
in váin does the wáitchman keep vígil.

In váin is your éarlier rísing, *
your góing láter to rést,
you who tóil for the bréad you éat, *
when he pours gifts on his belóved while they slumber.

Truly sóns are a gíft from the Lórd, *
a bléssing, the frúit of the wómb.
Indéed the sóns of yóuth *
are like árrows in the hánd of a wárrior.

Ó the háppiness of the mán *
who has fílléd his quíver with these árrows!
Hé will have no cáuse for sháme *
when he dispútes with his fóes in the gáteways.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
world without end.

Amen.

The Lord will build the house for us; he will watch over our city.

Psalms 127 (128)
Peaceful life in the Lord

“May the Lord bless you from Sion’, that is, from his Church” (Arnobius).

O blessed are those who fear the Lord.

O bléssed are thóse who fear the Lórd *
and wálk in his wáys!

By the lábour of your hánds you shall éat. *
You will be háppy and prósper;
your wífe like a frúitful víne *
in the héart of your hóuse;
your chýldren like shóots of the ólive, *
aróund your táble.

Indéed thús shall be bléssed *
the mán who fears the Lórd.
May the Lórd bléss you from Sión *
all the dáys of your lífe!
May you sée your chýldren’s chýldren *
in a háppy Jerúsalem!

On Ísrael, péace!

Glory be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit,

as it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
world without end.

Amen.

O blessed are those who fear the Lord.

CONCLUSION

Scripture Reading

Colossians 1:21-22

Not long ago, you were foreigners and enemies, in the way that you used to think and the evil things that you did; but now he has reconciled you, by his death and in that mortal body. Now you are able to appear before him holy, pure and blameless.

✠. Sing to the Lord, you, his saints.

✠. Remember his holiness and give praise.

Let us pray.

God our Father,
you are calling us to prayer at the ninth hour, when the apostles went up to the temple.
Grant that the prayer we offer with sincere hearts in the name of Jesus
may bring salvation to all who call upon that holy Name.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Let us praise the Lord.
— Thanks be to God.

Vespers (Evening Prayer)

Introduction (without Invitatory)

If this is the first Hour that you are reciting today, use the version with the Invitatory Psalm instead.

O God, come to our aid.

O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son

and to the Holy Spirit,

as it was in the beginning,

is now, and ever shall be,

world without end.

Amen. Alleluia.

Hymn

Come, praise the Lord, the Almighty, the King of all nations!

Tell forth his fame, O ye peoples, with loud acclamations!

His love is sure;

Faithful his word shall endure,

Steadfast through all generations!

Praise to the Father most gracious, the Lord of creation!
Praise to his Son, the Redeemer who wrought our salvation!

O heav'nly Dove,
Praise to thee, fruit of their love,
Giver of all consolation.

Psalm 122 (123)
The Lord guards his people

“The two blind men cried out, ‘Lord, have pity on us, Son of David’” (Mt 20:30).

Our eyes are turned to the Lord; we look for his mercy.

To yóu have I lifted up my éyes, *
you who dwéll in the héavens;
my éyes, like the éyes of sláves *
on the hánd of their lórd.

Líke the éyes of a sérvant *
on the hánd of her místress,
so our éyes are on the Lórd our Gód *
till he shów us his mércy.

Have mércy on us, Lórd, have mércy. *
We are filled with contémp.

Indéed all too fúll is our sóul †
with the scórn of the rích, *
with the pród man's disdáin.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
world without end.

Amen.

Our eyes are turned to the Lord; we look for his mercy.

Psalm 123 (124)
Our help is in the name of the Lord

“The Lord said to Paul, ‘Do not fear; for I am with you’” (Acts 18:9,10).

Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

‘If the Lórd had not béen on our síde,’ *
this is Ísrael’s sóng.

‘If the Lórd had not béen on our síde *
when mén rose agáinst us, thén would they have swállowed us alíve *
when their ánger was kíndled.

‘Thén would the wáters have engúlfed us, *
the tórrent gone óver us;
óver our héad would have swépt *
the ráging wáters.’

Bléssed be the Lórd who did not gíve us *
a préy to their téeth!
Our lífe, like a bírd, has escáped *
from the snáre of the fówler.

Indéed the snáre has been bróken *
and wé have escáped.
Our hélp is in the náme of the Lórd, *
who made héaven and éarth.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
world without end.

Amen.

Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

Canticle

Ephesians 1

God the Saviour

God chose us in his Son and made us his adopted sons.

Blessed be the God and Father *
of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ *
with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places.

He chose us in him *
before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy *
and blameless before him.

He destined us in love *
to be his sons through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of his will, †
to the praise of his glorious grace *
which he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved.

In him we have redemption through his blood, *
the forgiveness of our trespasses,
according to the riches of his grace *
which he lavished upon us.

He has made known to us †
in all wisdom and insight *
the mystery of his will,
according to his purpose *
which he set forth in Christ.

His purpose he set forth in Christ *
as a plan for the fullness of time,
to unite all things in him, *
things in heaven and things on earth.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit,

as it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
world without end.

Amen.

God chose us in his Son and made us his adopted sons.

Scripture Reading

James 4:11-12

Brothers, do not slander one another. Anyone who slanders a brother, or condemns him, is speaking against the Law and condemning the Law. But if you condemn the Law, you have stopped keeping it and become a judge over it. There is only one lawgiver and he is the only judge and has the power to acquit or to sentence. Who are you to give a verdict on your neighbour?

Short Responsory

Heal my soul, for I have sinned against you.

— Heal my soul, for I have sinned against you.

I said: 'Lord, have mercy on me.'

— Heal my soul, for I have sinned against you.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

— Heal my soul, for I have sinned against you.

My soul rejoices in the Lord

My soul magnifies the Lord, since God has had regard for my humble state.

My sóul glórifies the Lórd, *
my spírit rejóices in Gód, my Sáviour.
He lóoks on his sérvant in her lówliness; *
hencefóρθ all áges will cáll me bléssed.

The Almíghty works márvels for mé. *
Hóly his náme!
His mércy is from áge to áge, *
on thóse who féar him.

He púts forth his árm in stréngth *
and scátters the proud-héarted.
He cásts the míghty from their thrónes *
and ráises the lówly.

He fills the stárving with good thínɡs, *
sends the rích away émpty.

He protécts Ísrael, his sérvant, *
remémbering his mércy,
the mércy prómised to our fáthers, *
to Ábrahám and his sóns for éver.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit,

as it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
world without end.

Amen.

My soul magnifies the Lord, since God has had regard for my humble state.

Prayers and intercessions

The will of Christ is for all men to be saved. Let us pray that his will may be done.

— Draw all men to yourself, Lord.

Lord, by your sacrifice on the cross you redeemed us from the slavery of sin:

lead us to the freedom and glory of the sons of God.

— Draw all men to yourself, Lord.

Be with our bishop, N., and all the bishops of your Church:

grant them courage and compassion in their ministry.

— Draw all men to yourself, Lord.

Help those who seek the truth to find it:

let them be consecrated in truth.

— Draw all men to yourself, Lord.

– Draw all men to yourself, Lord.

— Draw all men to yourself, Lord.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,

and forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us,

and lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

Lord God,

it is our bounden duty to proclaim you as the Light
with whom there is no alteration or shadow of change.

Enlighten our darkness as we reach the close of this day,
and in your mercy forgive us our sins.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

The Lord bless us, and keep us from all evil, and bring us to everlasting life.

Amen.
